The Daily Gazetteer.

TUESDAY, JULY 26 1737.

To the GAZETTEER.

SIR,

LET a Quotation from Hiſtory, Romance, or Play, be ever ſo impertinent, and wide of the intended Mark, yet there are thoſe, to their Shame be it ſpoken, who will ſtrain an Application, and uſe their utmoſt Art and Induſtry to ſpread the Falſehood: This is the common Practice of the Malecontents; but was never more flagrant than in a late Inſtance, which ſo loudly called for juſt Reſentment: And, indeed, 'twas Time to check ſuch Inſolence——

When the King, our Maſter,
(Whoſe Honour Heav'n ſhield from Soil) ev'n he eſcapes not
Language unmannerly; yea, ſuch which breaks
The Sides of Loyalty, and almoſt appears
In loud Rebellion.——

K. Hen. VIII.

BUT I am ſurprized, that theſe Scrap-Gatherers, when they were rummaging old Plays for ſo vile a Purpoſe, ſhould over-look many Paſſages, ſo applicable to themſelves; and which, if they at all conſidered, or had any Senſe of their own Intereſt, would, undoubtedly, have checked their Career, and ſoftened them into Loyal Submiſſion.

——For Goodneſs ſake, conſider what you do,
How you may hurt yourſelf: Nay, utterly
Grow from the King's Acquaintance by this Carriage.
The Hearts of Princes kiſs Obedience,
So much they love it; but to ſtubborn Spirits,
They ſwell, and grow as terrible as Storms.

Ibid.

'TIS no wonder, therefore, that a Nobleman, of any Rank or Quality, if poſſeſſed of ſuch a Spirit, ſhould incur the Diſpleaſure of the King, and meet with the like Language that King Henry uſes to Worceſter.

——Worceſter, get thee gone, for I do ſee
Danger, and Diſobedience, in thine Eye.
O, Sir, your Preſence is too bold, and peremptory;
And Majeſty might never yet endure
The moody Frontier of a Servant Brow.
You have good Leave to leave us: When we need
Your Uſe and Counſel, we ſhall ſend for you.

K. Hen. IV. Part 1.

AND, as 'tis ſaid in King Lear, that

——To Wilful Men,
The Injuries that they themſelves procure,
Muſt be their Schoolmaſters——

So, we preſume, that Worceſter had experienced this, when, in the ſame Play, he makes that excellent Reflection to Hotſpur.

—In Faith, my Lord, you are too wilful-blame.—
You muſt needs learn, Lord, to amend this Fault;
Tho' ſometimes it ſhews Greatneſs, Courage, Blood,
Yet oftentimes it doth preſent harſh Rage,
Defect of Manners, Want of Government,
Pride, Haughtineſs, Opinion, and Diſdain:
The leaſt of which, haunting a Nobleman,
Loſeth Men's Hearts, and leaves behind a Stain,
Upon the Beauty of all Parts beſides,
Beguiling them of Commendation.——

THERE are others more modeſt in their Cenſure, which riſes no higher than a Lampoon, or Libel againſt ſome Magiſtrate, or Miniſter of State, ſuppoſe the firſt and worthieſt; to ſuch, therefore, I would recommend the Advice of Norfolk to Buckingham.

——Heat not a Furnace for your Foe ſo hot,
That it do ſinge yourſelf. We may out-run,
By violent Swiftneſs, that which we run at,
And loſe by over-running: Know you not,
The Fire that mounts the Liquor, till 't run over,
Seeming t' augment it, waſtes it: Be adviſ'd.——

K. Hen. VIII.

BUT however ſmart the Ridicule, however ſevere the Accuſation; methinks I hear the Great Man returning this calm Anſwer:

——Comeſt thou with premeditated Lines,
With written Pamphlets, ſtudiouſly deviſ'd?
——If thou canſt accuſe,
Do it without Invention, ſuddenly;
As I with ſudden and extemporal Speech,
Purpoſe to anſwer what thou canſt object.

K. Hen. VI. Part 1.

OR comforting himſelf with the Reſolution of an eminent Miniſter in the Play before quoted.

—If I'm traduc'd by Tongues, which neither know
My Faculties nor Perſon; yet will be
The Chronicles of my Doings; let me ſay,
'Tis but the Fate of Place, and the rough Brake
That Virtue muſt go thro': We muſt not ſtint
Our neceſſary Actions, in the Fear
To cope malicious Cenſurers; which ever,
As ravenous Fiſhes do a Veſſel follow,
That is new-trimm'd, but benefit no further
Than vainly Longing: What we oft do beſt,
By Sick Interpreters, or Weak Ones, is
Not our's, or not allow'd; what worſt, as oft
Hitting a groſſer Quality, is cried up
For our beſt Act. If we ſtand ſtill, in Fear
Our Motion will be mock'd, or carp'd at,
We ſhould take Root here we ſit;
Or ſit State-Statues only.

K. Hen. VIII.

Indeed, Great Sir,
——You are not to be taught
That you have many Enemies, that know not
Why they are ſo; but, like the Village Curs,
Bark when their Fellows do.—— Ibid.

BUT let them bark, let them write, rail, and abuſe; their Railleries, Abuſes, and Reproaches, will recoil upon their own Heads: while you, Sir, triumph over unjuſt Diſgrace, and with Glouceſter can ſtill ſay,

And had I twenty Times as many Foes,
And each of them had twenty Times their Pow'r,
All theſe could not procure me any Skathe,
So long as I am Loyal, True, and Crimeleſs.

K. Hen. VI. Part 2.

Laſt Friday the Lords of Juſticiary examined Evidence with reſpect to the pretended Madneſs of Caldwal the Soldier, who robbed the Glaſgow Mail, and the Majority of the Bench were of Opinion, that the ſame was counterfeit, and not real. CONDITIONS.

The firſt Volume containing Thirty Sheets, will be deliver'd to the Subſcribers ſoon after Michaelmas next, in Sheets, at 4 s. or neatly bound in Calf, at 5 s.

One Half to be paid at Subſcribing, the other Half on Delivery of the Book.

Subſcribers for Six, to have a Seventh gratis.

Subſcriptions will be taken in by the Editor, and Mr. Joſeph Fiſher, Bookſeller, over-againſt Tom's Coffee-houſe, Cornhill, till Sept. 1. and no longer, becauſe the firſt Sheets will be then printed off, and the Number of the Edition determined.

WHEREAS it has been falſely Reported, that my Father, Mr. JOHN MOORE, late Apothecary at the Peſtle and Mortar in Laurence Pountney's Lane, at the firſt great Gates on the Left Hand from Cannon-ſtreet, has died, not leaving any Perſon capable of carrying on the Buſineſs. This is to inform the Publick, that I, MARY MOORE, Daughter of the late Mr. John Moore, having been inſtructed by him for ſeveral Years in the Preparation and Application of his Worm Medicines, Anti-Scorbuticks, and other Medicines, am ready to diſpoſe of them to all who ſhall have occaſion for them, at his late Dwelling Houſe. Likewiſe the ſaid Mr. John Moore's Worm-Medicines are ſold at Mrs. Reader's, at the Nine Sugar Loaves, a Chandler's Shop in Hungerford Market, ſealed with his Coat of Arms, being a Croſs, with the Words, John Moore's Worm-Powder, &c. inſcribed round it; and if any are ſold at any Place, except at his own Houſe, without that Seal and Inſcription, they are Counterfeits.

Alſo there is to be ſold at the late Mr. Moore's Dwelling Houſe, a Collection of Tame Pigeons, among which are fine Carriers, very large Runts, Turbets, Powters, and ſeveral other Sorts of curious Pigeons.

N. B. The Houſe to be Lett, having five Rooms on a Floor, very good Vaults, and Cellaring, a compleat Elaboratory, and convenient Shop.

The famous Original Specifick Injection, or Lotion,

Which in Twenty-two Years private Practice, hath cured 1485 Gonorrheas or Claps, (without taking any Medicine by the Mouth) and ſince September laſt for Years 1357 in the publick Way; and will prevent either Pox or Clap, as Thouſands have experienced.

Thoſe that uſe this Medicine, always know where to have the Author.

IT entirely deſtroys and carries off all Venereal Infection, becauſe it reaches the Cauſe immediately which no Medicines taken by the Mouth can do, and therefore prevents all the doleful Attendants of impure Embraces. Sublata Cauſa tollitur Affectus. It is not only a Antidote againſt the Diſeaſe, but the Poiſon of other Medicines.

N. B. Reaſon and Experience firſt recommended it to the Publick; the great Satisfaction it gives, and the great Demand for it, convinces me more and more of its extenſive Uſe. It alſo cures the Whites and Barrenneſs in Women, and Impotency in Men.

It is ſold only by Mr. John King, at his Picture-Shop in the Poultry, near Stocks-market, by Mr. Thomas Read, Printer, in Dogwell Court in White Fryars, Fleet-ſtreet, London; by William Evans, Bookſeller in Briſtol; and by Thomas Price, Bookſeller, in Glouceſter; at 7 s. 6 d. a Bottle, which is wrapp'd and ſealed up with Directions (the proper Inſtrument a Shilling.) Ask for a Bottle of Wash.

It is to be obſerved,

(For the Satisfaction of all Perſons, who are fearful or doubtful of uſing any Publick Medicines)

That there never was, nor will be, a good and beneficial Medicine publiſhed to the World, without finding Enemies, whoſe Intereſt it is, not only to decry and vilify, but often to counterfeit it; and the better the Medicine, the greater the Oppoſition: Therefore all doubtful People ſhould have Recourſe to Experience, the infallible Atteſter of Truth, without Prejudice or Partiality. Let them enquire of the Sort of the Medicine, either where it is ſold, but rather of thoſe who have uſed it; and if they are informed the Effects anſwer the Intentions, let them freely uſe it, without regarding what Malice, Intereſt, or Prejudice may ſuggeſt againſt it.

Letters Patent are obtaining, for preventing Impoſtions.

To Perſons of either Sex Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other NERVOUS DECAYS.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS ſo frequent as of late they have been, nor have the uſual Remedies been found adequate to thoſe pertinacious Diſtempers: This occaſioned a Phyſician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palſy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced in vaſt Numbers of Perſons of both Sexes, and always with ſurprizing Succeſs, even ſo as infallibly to cure by it the Palſy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Diſeaſes, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that ſo thoſe labouring under theſe miſerable Ailments, might know where to meet with a ſafe and moſt certain Cure, which it accompliſhes in ſo ſhort a Time, and with ſuch Eaſe and Pleaſure (a few Drops of it being a Doſe, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels, as is almoſt incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonſtrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients ſoon find all Numbneſs, Deadneſs, and Shaking, or Reſolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulſive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vaniſh and return no more; and that though theſe Diſeaſes have been of many Years ſtanding, and whether occaſioned by long Illneſs, faſt Living, hard Drinking, or any other Cauſe; for it performs all that can be wiſh'd for in Nervous Caſes, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digeſtion, occaſions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, cauſes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Veſſels, revives and increaſes the Spirits, warms, comforts, ſtrengthens, and repleniſhes the Brain and whole Nervous Syſtem, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs reſtored to their priſtine Steadineſs and Strength, and the Palſy and all Paralytick Diſorders and Nervous Decays ſuddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themſelves, and all about them.

This ſovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be ſold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Croſs-Keys and Seven Cornhill, near Stock's Market, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions.
